

DAVID W. CANTRILL, is an Idaho native and resides in Boise, Idaho. He was born and raised in Pocatello, Idaho. Mr. Cantrill graduated from Pocatello High School, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Idaho State University in 1966 and received his Juris Doctorate in 1970 from the University of Idaho Law School. He was in the Army, including the reserves from 1963-1969. In 1970, Mr. Cantrill entered private practice in Boise concentrating in litigation. He has tried cases in five states and almost every county in the state of Idaho. Mr. Cantrill is a member of the Idaho State Bar, American Inns of Court, Defense Research Institute, Idaho Association of Defense Counsel and is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. He has been married to his wife, Susan, for 49 years, has 3 children and numerous grandchildren. Mr. Cantrill joined the Idaho Judicial Council as its Executive Director in December of 2015.