

Judge John C. Judge has been the Latah County Magistrate since October 1, 2008. Prior to his appointment to the bench, he enjoyed private practice in Moscow for 24 years with Landeck, Westberg, Judge & Graham. He graduated from the University of Idaho College of Law in 1984 and has been active throughout his career in speaking to law students and serving in organizations devoted to the administration of justice, ethics, and the rule of law, including two terms as president of the Ray McNichols American Inn of Court. He currently serves on the Idaho State-Tribal Court Forum, the Idaho Supreme Court Guardianship/Conservatorship Committee, the Magistrate Standard Forms and Practices Committee, the Child Support Guidelines Committee, and the Second District Magistrate Commission. Judge Judge loves his work, his family, and his life. When he is not working, he is playing outside. He was appointed to serve as an adjunct member of the Judicial Council on July 1, 2016.
