

KEELY ELIZABETH DUKE is a litigation trial attorney practicing in Boise, Idaho. She has been practicing in Idaho since 1999. She is the founding partner of Duke Evett, PLLC. Her practice is mainly focused on insurance defense, including medical malpractice, legal malpractice, employment, skilled nursing defense, insurance bad faith and product liability/medical device litigation. Ms. Duke has served on several Boards, including the Federal Bar Association – Idaho Chapter (Board and Past-President), Idaho Association of Defense Counsel (Board and Past President), Federal Defender Services of Idaho (Board and Past President), Ronald McDonald House Charities (Board and Past President), and Boys and Girls Club of Idaho (Board). Ms. Duke has been honored with several Best Lawyer of the Year for her defense work and is AV rated. She is licensed in Idaho and Oregon. Ms. Duke joined the Idaho Judicial Council as a member in June 2022.