

R. BRUCE OWENS is a lawyer in private practice in Hayden, Idaho. He is a partner in the firm Owens McCrea & Linscott. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from Brigham Young University and his Juris Doctor degree from Arizona State University, Tempe in 1972. Mr. Owens' current practice focuses on civil litigation involving medical negligence, premises liability, automobile negligence, insurance law and contracts/commercial litigation. Mr. Owens is married to Judith Owens and has six children. Before serving on the Idaho Judicial Council, Mr. Owens served as past President, Treasurer, Secretary and Director for the Idaho Trial Lawyers Association, a member of the Idaho Supreme Court Evidentiary Rules Advisory Committee, past President, Vice-President and Board Member for the Idaho Law Foundation. Mr. Owens is certified by the Idaho Trial Lawyers Association and the Idaho Bar Association as a Civil Trial Specialist. Mr. Owens joined the Idaho Judicial Council in July of 2017.