

MICHELLE R. POINTS is a lawyer in private practice in Boise, Idaho. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Oregon in Political Science and did her graduate studies at Southern Oregon University. She received her Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from Gonzaga University of Law in 2000. Ms. Points' current practice focuses on general and complex litigation, dispute resolution, commercial litigation, commercial transactions. Before serving on the Idaho Judicial Council, Ms. Points served as President for the Idaho State Bar, President and Director for Idaho Women Lawyers, original member of the Idaho Pro Bono Commission, member of the Idaho Supreme Court Evidence Rules Committee and Commissioner of the Idaho State Bar Board of Commissioners. Ms. Points' accomplishments are: Idaho Business Review, 2011 Women of the Year recipient, 2010 Women's & Children's Alliance Tribute to Women in Industry award recipient, 2007 Idaho State Bar Outstanding Service Award, 2006 Denise O'Donnell-Day Pro bono Award for the Fourth Judicial District and 2006 Idaho Business Review, Accomplished Under 40 Award. Ms. Points joined the Idaho Judicial Council in July of 2021.