

Governor appoints Patrick J. Miller to Fourth Judicial District Court

Friday February 8, 2019

BOISE, Idaho – Governor Brad Little announced today the appointment of Patrick J. Miller as District Judge to the Fourth Judicial District Court.

"Pat is an incredible, experienced attorney and community-minded citizen," Governor Little said. "We will all benefit from his work in the judicial branch. I am grateful for his continued service to the State of Idaho."

Miller has practiced law for more than 30 years as a partner at Boise-based Givens Pursley LLP. He is a University of Idaho graduate.

"I am honored Governor Little appointed me to this position," Miller said. "To quote Theodore Roosevelt, I am happy to have the chance to work hard at work worth doing."

Miller is appointed to the Fourth Judicial District Court following the retirement of the Honorable Richard D. Greenwood, effective March 31, 2019.