JENNIFER F. RIEBE - Caldwell, ID, Citizen Member

Jennifer F. Riebe has served as Payette County commissioner since 2022, following 15 years on the county's Planning and Zoning Commission. She has served on several regional and state boards, including the Idaho Oil and Gas Conservation Commission, Southwest District Health, and Payette County Paramedics, and has been active with the Idaho Association of Counties. Her community service includes the Payette County Soil and Water Conservation District, Sand Hollow Community Hall, and local election administration. She holds bachelor's degree in horticulture and a master's degree in entomology, both from the University of Wisconsin.